

"MADAME RESTELL," the infamous "female physician" in N. York, was arrested on Saturday on two bench warrants issued by the Court of Sessions, under indictments found by the Grand Jury the morning previous. The attention of the District Attorney was first called to these cases from a statement that appeared in the Medical Journal of last month. Her husband, Mr. Lohman, gave $2000 bail for her appearance.

On Saturday Napoleon Lareux, Madame Guetel and Catharine Costello alias Maxwell were found guilty of procuring abortion, as charged against them.
